copyright infringement, unwarranted mass-surveillance, sextortion, child pornography and child grooming. These are also problems of privacy when confidential information is intercepted or disclosed, lawfully or otherwise. Internationally, both governmental and non-state actors engage in cyber crimes, including espionage, financial theft and other cross-border crimes. Actively crossing international borders and involving the interest of at least one nation state is sometimes referred to as cyber warfare. These crimes are posing a serious threat to both business and individuals.

Unit-IV

4. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follows it :
- (a) Man is the most paradoxical of all animals. On one hand he is the most imaginative and creative creature of the world has ever known. He had evolved a conscience. His creative record is awe inspiring from the earliest cave paintings to Picasso, from Caxton's printing press to the computer. On the other hand, he is the most dangerous and destructive of all animals; and this destructive record is terrifying. He has destroyed much of his own creation and for too much of the natural creation. Toxic chemicals are still poisoning the world around us, although
